Dear [REDACTED]

Ref: FOI 12-023

Thank you for your request for information, received by the London Legacy Development Corporation (the Corporation) on 25 September 2012. You asked us the following questions:

My name is [REDACTED] and I am a student at UCL in the discipline of Economics. I have been set a project looking into the legacy of London 2012 in terms of disability access all over the UK but particularly in London. Would it be possible to obtain some information on the amount of money spent on improving access for disabled people, and what specifically it was spent on, in the run up to the Olympic and Paralympic games?

Information on the amount of money spent on improving access for disabled people, and details of what specifically it was spent on, in the run up to the Olympic and Paralympic games is held by the Olympic Delivery Authority (the ODA).

The ODA should be able to answer your request for information. You will be able to contact them at information.officer@london2012.com, or in writing to:

Freedom of Information Officer
Olympic Delivery Authority
One Churchill Place
Canary Wharf
