Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your request for information, received on 17 December 2012. I have set out below our response to each one of your questions following your order:

(1) Is the electric fence around the Olympic Park still in use as an electric fence?

No, the fencing around the Olympic Park (the Park) is not in use as an electric fence.

(2) If not, when was it last operated as an electric fence?

The fencing was last used as an electric fence before 22nd October 2012 when the Olympic Delivery Authority handed over the security system to the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation).

(3) Will the electric fencing be used again or reinstalled if it is removed, for example for the 2017 World Athletics Championships?

No, Legacy Corporation has no plans to use electric fencing.

(4) Will the electric element be removed from the rest of the fencing?

The current Park fence including the electrified topper will be removed during the transformation of the Park.

(5) Will the non electric fencing be taken down?

Yes. The current Park fence will be removed during the transformation of the Park.

(6) If it is to be taken down, will it be replaced with any other fencing or other perimeter controls?

Park railings will be installed in the North of the Park, but currently there are no plans to install railings in the South of the Park.
