INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 14-034

Dear

Thank you for your communication, received on 8 September 2014. You asked us to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA).

“Please set out all the payments made for the different portions of land which now go to make up the Chobham Manor site whether they were made as part of the Olympic compulsory purchase, or any new payments, for freehold or leases and whether all the land is now held as freehold by the LLDC or if any is leased and if so from whom.”

The London Legacy Development Corporation (the Legacy Corporation) currently owns the freehold of the Chobham Manor site.

One payment was made to Lee Valley Regional Park Authority (LVRPA) by the Legacy Corporation’s predecessor body, The Olympic Park Legacy Corporation (OPLC). In March 2012, the OPLC acquired land from LVRPA for £17.45m which is part of the Chobham Manor site. Any earlier payments were made by the London Development Agency (LDA). When they closed their financial information was transferred to the Greater London Authority (GLA).

Your request to the GLA can be posted, emailed or faxed to:

Public Liaison Unit
