INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 14- 039

Dear

Thank you for your request for information, received on 26 September 2014. You asked us to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

“the signed Deed of Variation relating to Premises known as East Marsh between the Mayor and Burgesses of the London Borough of Hackney and the London Legacy Development Corporation.”

In response to your request for information please find attached the Deed of Variation between Mayor of London, the Borough of Hackney and the London Legacy Development Corporation (the Legacy Corporation).

There has been one redaction for information withheld under the FOIA exemption s.40(2) – personal information.

It is the standard practice of the Legacy Corporation to redact personal information unless consent to release the information has been received.

FOIA Section 40(2) – personal information

(2) Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if—

- (a) it constitutes personal data which do not fall within subsection (1), and*
- (b) either the first or the second condition below is satisfied.*

(3) The first condition is—

(a) in a case where the information falls within any of paragraphs (a) to (d) of the definition of “data” in section 1(1) of the Data Protection Act 1998, that the disclosure of the information to a member of the public otherwise than under this Act would contravene—

- (i) any of the data protection principles, or*
- (ii) section 10 of that Act (right to prevent processing likely to cause damage or distress), and*

In this instance, the relevant condition that applies is section 40(2) whereby the information is defined as personal data within Section 1(1)(a) of the Data Protection Act 1998. As we have not received consent of the data subject, release of the requested information at this time would contravene the first data principle under Schedule 2(1) of the Data Protection Act 1998.
