Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your information request, received on 4 December 2014. You asked us to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

“Your organisation published the tender below:

London: Surveillance and security systems and devices - 2012/S 193-317090 of 6.10.2012

My request is simply the full names and addresses of all of the companies who submitted a bid for this tender and whether they were successful or not. Please note - I do not require any confidential information about the bid itself or the bidders.

I would like to receive this information by email - preferably in a spreadsheet format but if this is not possible in a word document.”

The London Legacy Development Corporation do not hold the addresses used by the companies who submitted a bid for this tender, however the other information you have requested is in Annex A. The information is in a Microsoft Office Excel 97-2003 worksheet format as requested.

There were originally two further lots of work within the tender but these procurement opportunities were terminated in accordance with the rights of the Contracting Authority afforded to it under the Public Contracts Regulations 2006 (the “Regulations”) during the early stages of the procurement processes.
