Dear [REDACTED]

Happy New Year. I hope you had a nice break over the festive period. Unfortunately, as I flagged just before Christmas, here is the latest from the Commission with additional information sent by the complainant.

From today, we have 20 working days to respond.

Regards,

Hi [REDACTED]

Just to confirm that I received your email. I have only had the opportunity to skim the response thus far, but I am comfortable, indeed familiar with the material, and I think the structure makes sense. Good executive summary too.

If you need a couple of extra days for excision of confidential data, I'll let UKREP know.

Kind regards,

Hi [REDACTED]

I hope all is well

I left you a v/m last Friday as I wanted to be certain that you had our paper/response to EC's letter of 7.1.14.

Just also to let you know that I didn't get any further comments from my CEO.

The attached is the very final version with the three annexes: Annexes 1 and 3 are embedded in the document. Annex 2 (the rejection of the JR application) is attached hereto.

I was planning to start the excision of the confidential information process – did you have the chance to review?

The deadline for submission, according to my calculation is tomorrow – I appreciate that the EC could give UKRep an extra day or so.

Grateful if you could give me a call when you receive this email.

Thank you [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

I attach an almost final draft so that you and colleagues at the Department can start your review.

Our CEO has given me his main points and he is having another final read through tonight – I do not expect major changes;

however, any comments he might have I will mark them on this latest version and send them back to you tomorrow.

I will give you a call tomorrow morning to discuss.

Many thanks for your support [REDACTED]
