Hi [REDACTED]

I believe another complaint has been made to the Commission in relation in to West Ham and the former Olympic Stadium. Would it be possible for you to let me know in advance of any public statements you might issue in relation to this complaint?

Many thanks

Hi [REDACTED]

This is what we said:

- Following complaints of citizens, the Commission carried out an informal, preliminary investigation into alleged aid provided to West Ham football club.
- Contacts with the UK authorities and information received from the authorities however did not support the suggestion that West Ham received any state aid. Therefore, on the basis of the available information, the Commission's services did not see a basis to investigate the matter further.

Best, [REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

I am enquiring about a statement in Development Finance Today which is attributed to the Commission. I have attached the link and the statement below. I would like to know if the statement is accurate and if you could email the statement in full?

Many thanks

.....a spokesman from the European Commission backed the club's positioning, telling DFT: "Following complaints of citizens, the Commission carried out an informal, preliminary investigation into alleged aid provided to West Ham football club."

"Contacts with the UK authorities and information received from the authorities however did not support the suggestion that West Ham received any state aid."
