INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 16024

Dear

Thank you for your information request, received on 23 March 2016. You asked the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation) to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

“Could you please tell me how much the London Legacy Development Corporation have spent in legal costs, trying to keep the terms of their deal with West Ham for the Olympic Stadium private, since the information commissioner ruled the terms of the deal should be made public in September?”

The Legacy Corporation can confirm that they hold some information relevant to your request.

The Legacy Corporation is a functional body of the Greater London Authority and its internal legal services are provided under a shared services agreement by Transport for London Legal. The Legacy Corporation does not hold information on the amount of internal legal costs incurred in dealing with the Legacy Corporation's appeal against the ICO decision, as in accordance with normal practice internal legal costs were not recorded or itemised.

The amount of external legal costs, incurred in instructing Counsel of 11KBW to advise and to represent LLDC at the appeal, is £19,200 plus VAT.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to:

Executive Director of Finance and Corporate Services
London Legacy Development Corporation
Level 10
1 Stratford Place
Montfichet Road
London

Please note: complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial response will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may appeal directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision. There is no charge for making an appeal.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
