INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 16110

Dear

Thank you for your information request, received on 27 October 2016. You asked the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation) and E20 Stadium LLP (E20) to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

“Could you please provide details of any meetings, meeting minutes and correspondence between LLDC/E20 and anyone in the BBC that relates in any way to the West Ham United v Chelsea game played at the London Stadium last night.”

The Legacy Corporation and E20 can confirm that, as of the date of this request, they have not had any meetings with the BBC in relation to the West Ham United v Chelsea game played on 26 October 2016.

E20 have not had any correspondence with the BBC in relation to this match. The Legacy Corporation can confirm that, as of the date of this request, they hold correspondence with the BBC in relation to this request. The correspondence was via email and is attached in Annex A.

Please note it is the standard practice of the Legacy Corporation to redact personal information unless consent to release the information has been received.

Section 40(2) – personal information

*(2) Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if—
(a) it constitutes personal data which do not fall within subsection (1), and
(b) either the first or the second condition below is satisfied.*

The section 40 exemption is absolute and is not subject to the public interest test. In this instance, the relevant condition that applies is section 40(2) whereby the information is defined as personal data within Section 1(1)(a) of the Data Protection Act 1998. The redacted information includes the name and phone numbers within this correspondence. As we have not received consent of the data subjects, release of the requested information at this time would contravene the first data principle under Schedule 2(1) of the Data Protection Act 1998.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to:

Deputy Chief Executive
London Legacy Development Corporation
Level 10
1 Stratford Place
Montfichet Road
London
E20 1EJ

Please note: complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial response will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may appeal directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision. There is no charge for making an appeal.
