INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 19-004

Dear [REDACTED]

Thank you for your information request, received on 21 January 2019. You asked the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation) to provide the following information under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004 (EIR):

“How many Tree Preservation Orders have the council served that are still valid (i.e. excluding those that have been revoked). If establishing the number that have been revoked is problematic please let me know how many have been served.

How old is the oldest TPO that is still valid (i.e. which year was it served in)”

The Legacy Corporation does not hold the information you have requested. Since becoming the Local Planning Authority on 1 October 2012, the Legacy Corporation has served no Tree Preservation Orders (TPO's) and has revoked none. The relevant records are therefore currently held by the four boroughs (London boroughs of Hackney, Newham, Tower Hamlets and Waltham Forest) for any previously served or revoked TPO's within their part of the Legacy Corporation planning area.

Information on how to submit information requests to these councils is on their website.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of our decision, you should write to:

Deputy Chief Executive
London Legacy Development Corporation
Level 10, 1 Stratford Place
Montfichet Road
London, E20 1EJ

Email: FOI@londonlegacy.co.uk

Please note: complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial response will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may appeal directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision. There is no charge for making an appeal.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
