INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 19-019

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your information request, received on 11 April 2019. You asked the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation) to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

*"In April 2012, The Development Corporation publicised the following document.
https://www.queenelizabetholympicpark.co.uk/-/media/lldc/policies/lldc_your_sustainability_guide_to_the_queen_elizabeth_olympic_park2030.ashx?la=en, p.8-9*

On page 8/9, the LLDC made plans to "build on this vision to realise a thriving new district based on three key themes: People, Places and Performance". I wish to be sent any recent reports, public or otherwise, that analyses whether the these objectives have been met."

"These objectives" was clarified to mean the objectives as set out in the Sustainability Guide.

I can confirm that the Legacy Corporation holds information relevant to your request, detailed below.

LLDC reflects progress against each element of the LLDC Sustainability Guide in its Environmental Sustainability Reports. The Reports cover the same seven key themes as the Guide, and includes granular detail on progress displayed by a 'traffic light' indicator. They are published in the Sustainability section of our website:

<https://www.queenelizabetholympicpark.co.uk/our-story/transforming-east-london/sustainability>

For information, the 2017/18 report is currently in the final stages of being produced and is planned for publication on the Sustainability Section of the LLDC Website imminently (likely May 2019).

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to:
