INFORMATION REQUEST REFERENCE 19-038

Dear [REDACTED],

Thank you for your information request, received on 29 July 2019. You asked the London Legacy Development Corporation (Legacy Corporation) to provide the following information under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (FOIA):

“Regarding the letter in relation to DB Cargo, has anything similar been sent to S Walsh and Son, if so, please can this be shared.

Regarding the DB Cargo letter, please could you share a copy of their response to this and any correspondence that may have followed on both sides.”

The information relevant to your request is below and our response follows your order:

Regarding the letter in relation to DB Cargo, has anything similar been sent to S Walsh and Son, if so, please can this be shared.

I can confirm that the Legacy Corporation has not sent correspondence to S Walsh and Sons in relation to Bow East Goods Yard and the concerns that have been raised about the use of the site. Therefore, I can confirm that the Legacy Corporation does not hold this information.

Regarding the DB Cargo letter, please could you share a copy of their response to this and any correspondence that may have followed on both sides.

I can confirm that the Legacy Corporation holds information which falls within the scope of your request.

Please find attached in Annex A Network Rail's email response to the Legacy Corporation's letter. We have not received a response from DB Cargo.

Please note some information from Annex A has been withheld under s.40(2) personal information.

Section 40(2) – personal information

*(2) Any information to which a request for information relates is also exempt information if—
(a) it constitutes personal data which do not fall within subsection (1), and
(b) either the first or the second condition below is satisfied.*

It is the standard practice of the Legacy Corporation to withhold personal information unless consent to release the information has been received.

The section 40 exemption is absolute and is not subject to the public interest test. In this instance, the relevant condition that applies is section 40(2) whereby the information is defined as personal data within Section 1(1)(a) of the Data Protection Act 1998.

If you are unhappy with our response to your request and wish to make a complaint or request an internal review of our decision, you should write to:

Deputy Chief Executive
London Legacy Development Corporation
Level 10, 1 Stratford Place
Montfichet Road
London, E20 1EJ

Email: FOI@londonlegacy.co.uk

Please note: complaints and requests for internal review received more than two months after the initial response will not be handled.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you may appeal directly to the Information Commissioner at the address given below. You should do this within two months of our final decision. There is no charge for making an appeal.

Further information on the Freedom of Information Act 2000 is available from the Information Commissioner's Office:
