

THE HOME OF EXTRAORDINARY EVENTS

Hospitality, meetings, conferences and event spaces at
Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park

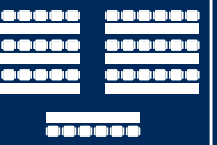

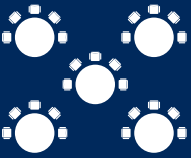

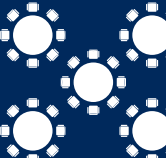

In 2012, the UK's events industry spectacularly rose to the challenge of staging the greatest show on earth here in London. The legacy of the summer of 2012 is the remarkable award-winning Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park which attracts 20 million visits annually and is home to London's newest cultural quarter, East Bank. East Bank is comprised of cultural powerhouses BBC Music Studios; London College of Fashion, UAL; Sadler's Wells East; UCL (University College London) East and V&A East.

Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is London's most exciting destination for events of all kinds, boasting 10 unique venues, each with a range of flexible spaces, and their own unique offering.

At the Park, your guests can enjoy the skyline from the top of the UK's tallest sculpture, see behind the scenes at one of the world's most famous stadia, and enjoy fantastic conference facilities. There are spaces for thousands of delegates – or just a select gathering, in some of London's most unique and inspirational meeting, hospitality and event spaces. All with exceptional transport links – the Park is just 10 minutes from central London.

Each venue has its own management team, so for more information please use the contact details listed on each page.

For more information on the whole of the Park contact us at events@londonlegacy.co.uk

EXPERIENCE THE HEIGHT OF CELEBRATION

Where else in the world can you hold an event at the top of a Turner Prize winner's iconic sculpture?

Anish Kapoor and Cecil Balmond's ArcelorMittal Orbit, the UK's tallest sculpture, twists and towers above Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, providing stunning views of the London skyline, effortlessly delivering the wow factor for your event.

The Slide at the ArcelorMittal Orbit – a unique artistic collaboration between Sir Anish Kapoor and Carsten Holler – adds an extraordinary new dimension to your event. Your guests can speed down the world's longest tunnel slide 178m to the ground in less than 40 seconds.

The ArcelorMittal Orbit provides a unique setting for meetings, receptions, exclusive dining experiences, awards ceremonies, product launches and private parties. Let your guests soak up the views of the city some 80m above the Park. Two elevators will whisk them up to the two viewing platforms from where Canary Wharf, the City, ExCel and central London are all visible. On a clear day they just might spot the dome of St. Paul's Cathedral and the arch of Wembley Stadium. The ArcelorMittal Orbit is also a spectacular breakfast venue as the sun rises over the city.

THE PERFECT PARK HIDEAWAY

Nestled amongst stunning natural landscapes, Timber Lodge offers a fantastic catering and events space with ample room and a first-class service.

Located in the green heart of the north of Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park is the award-winning Timber Lodge. Run by Five Star Catering, this eco-friendly building includes a café and two flexible event spaces which can be combined to form one larger area. The elegantly landscaped lawn can also be incorporated into events. Timber Lodge was the first new building to open on the Park after the Games, and together with the nearby Tumbling Bay Playground, the building was commended for its accessibility and universal design at the Civic Trust Awards 2014.

THE BOX THAT ROCKS

Create incredible memories at the Copper Box Arena, London's most versatile entertainment and events venue, holding up to 7,500 people. Since opening in the summer of 2013, the Copper Box Arena has established itself as a leading event venue in London.

Conferences, trade shows, exhibitions, concerts, TV spectaculars, esports events, boxing and many other sports have all been accommodated within the Copper Box Arena. The flexible auditorium design allows the main seating blocks to be tucked away, providing an open pillar-free floor area of 2,712m². Event facilities include staging, mother grid and full blackout, and backstage there are a host of changing areas.

Handball, goalball, fencing and modern pentathlon were played at Copper Box Arena during the Games, and now the venue plays host to other major sports including netball, boxing and martial arts. London's only professional basketball team, the London Lions, and the UK's leading netball team, London Pulse, have made the Copper Box Arena their permanent home.

A PLACE FOR INNOVATION AND VISION

Cutting edge facilities in the home of business, technology, media, education and data.

London's fastest growing innovation campus, Here East is located beside the River Lee in the north of Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park. The Press and Broadcast centres, which transmitted the Games to the world, are now bringing together large spaces and unparalleled infrastructure in a unique environment.

With a private terrace and flexible layout, the Theatre and Conference space is perfect for seminars, award ceremonies and large dinners. It can also be configured to create exhibition or break out spaces for discussion and idea sharing, as well as smaller events and receptions.

The Undercroft is a covered outdoor area, directly under the Theatre, and perfect for pop-ups and performance.

Sitting between the Press and Broadcast Centre, The Yard is a landscaped area with hard standing and green spaces offering a unique setting for an outdoor reception, sporting activity or filming.

Independent maker-retailers, cafés, bars and restaurants make the Canalside a great location to meet, eat and relax, providing space for gatherings and private hire. Outlets include The Breakfast Club and Four Quarters.
